Debut Children's Book by Kerry Copley Inspires Young Readers with Royal Adventure

Date: 24th June 2024

Magic Moon Publishing is delighted to announce the release of Kerry Copley's debut children's book, "Thanks for the Invite, Your Majesty." This enchanting story captures the hearts of young readers with its whimsical narrative and vibrant illustrations.

Kerry Copley, an Inclusion Officer for the Virtual School Children's Services from Lincolnshire with a passion for storytelling and neuroscience, brings her rich life experiences to this unique tale. Her story follows Mani, a determined spider with dreams of grandeur, who finds himself at the Queen's funeral through the power of friendship, belief, and positive self-talk.

Copley's background in early childhood education and her interest in meditation and neuroscience have deeply influenced her writing, making this book not only entertaining but also educational. The story emphasizes themes of self-belief, hope, and the magic of dreams, resonating strongly with children and parents alike.

Book Details:

- Title: Thanks for the Invite, Your Majesty
- Author: Kerry Copley
- Genre: Children's Fiction (Picture Book)
- Format: Paperback, Full colour
- Target Audience: 5+ / Key Stage 1

Blurb: Millions watched as the Queen of England was laid to rest on the 19th of September 2022. A small guest was spied amongst the floral tribute. Was it Mani??? This is a story of hopes, dreams, and manifestation. How a spindly spider named Mani never gave up on his dreams to see the world and be loved. How he used friendship, belief, and positive self-talk to take him from his dark drainpipe home to being a guest at Her Majesty's funeral.

Praise for "Thanks for the Invite, Your Majesty":

"An absolute gem! My children were captivated by Mani's adventure and the positive messages woven into the story. It's a delightful read for the whole family." – Sarah Johnson, Parent

"As an educator, I appreciate how this book combines a charming story with important life lessons. It's a wonderful addition to our classroom library." – Emily Thompson, Early Years Teacher

"My kids couldn't put it down! They loved Mani and learned so much about resilience and positivity. Highly recommend!" – David Brown, Parent
